Open to ALL PARTIES, but influenced by NONE.

LONDON, Auguſt 18.

ON Saturday the Earl of Hillſborough ſet out from his houſe, in Hanover Square, for Ireland.

The Earl of Dartmouth, who has ſucceeded Lord Hillſborough as Secretary of State to the American department, is reckoned, beſide being a man of buſineſs, one of the moſt accompliſhed Noblemen in England, being a doctor of the civil law, and fellow of the royal ſociety.

By a very intelligent farmer, who has juſt returned from a tour through moſt of the counties of England, we are informed that there never was a more plentiful crop of all kinds of grain, particularly wheat, oats, and peas, and that the farmers would be at a loſs for room to hold it, as their houſeing, which uſed to contain their crops, was not this year nearly ſufficient to receive the produce of their fields.

They write from Coventry that ſeveral pluſh weavers have lately been engaged there to embark for New England.

Auguſt 20. It is believed by ſome that Lord Dartmouth's entrance into the Miniſtry is only a prelude to other important changes; the names of Temple, Chatham, and Rockingham, being ſtill frequently brought up at court, as if they were at laſt to be permitted to ſave this nation from deſtruction.

The noble reſolutions entered into by ſeveral capital merchants of this city to import American wheat muſt, it is believed, more effectually ſtrike at the horrid practice of foreſtalling, than any legal proviſion that can be made againſt it.

Such puppets are the Engliſh populace, that they are conſtantly played off againſt their own beſt intereſts. The foreſtallers, alarmed at the idea of American wheat being approved in this country, have already begun to prejudice the lower orders of the community againſt it, and it is well known that obſtinacy and credulity are ſtrong alliances in favour of their ſchemes.

Auguſt 24. It is ſaid that a proclamation will ſhortly be iſſued, offering great advantages to thoſe people who embark for America, in order to cultivate the country, and facilitate the Miſſiſippi ſcheme.

A correſpondent informs us that a certain northern Monarch has ſunk into ſuch an inactive ſtate as to be totally indifferent about the affairs of his court.

Lord Hillſborough, ſays a correſpondent, ought to be greatly honoured by all mankind for his motives of reſignation; for as it was impoſſible to convince him that a ſettlement, inacceſſible to our navy, could be advantageous to this country, it was noble in him to forego his appointment, rather than proſtitute his opinion.

It is now generally believed that Lord Hillſborough will be the choſen perſon to relieve the Viceroy of a neighbouring kingdom; or, in other words, heal the diſcontents of an oppreſſed people.

The martial ſpirit which ſhines forth in the heir apparent to theſe kingdoms, promiſes honour and ſecurity to the riſing generation; as the Prince that has a repugnancy to every military operation beyond a harmleſs review muſt at all times be ready to pay an unworthy price for his pacific enjoyments.

The manufacture of cambrick is now ſo much improved in Ireland, as to be ſuperior in colour, fineneſs, and ſervice, to any made in the other parts of Europe.

Auguſt 27. Yeſterday Lord Garlies kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, on being appointed one of the Lords of Trade, in the room of John Roberts, Eſquire, deceaſed. Charles Jenkinſon, Eſquire, is to be member for Harwich, in the room of Mr. Roberts; and that Sir George Macartney is to be member for Appleby, in the room of Mr. Jenkinſon.

Should the ſettlement on the Ohio take place, no emigrants whatſoever are to be permitted from this country except the actual proprietors.

An extra board is appointed to take cognizance of the Miſſiſippi and Ohio ſchemes, at which the merits of both will be finally determined.

Lord Hillſborough, it is now pretty certain, has viſited his native country on the nobleſt of motives; the purport of his commiſſion being no leſs to enquire into, than redreſs, the real grievances of that kingdom.

From St. Alban's we learn, that an inhabitant of that town keeps a tame rat in his houſe; the conſequence of which is, that his dwelling is infeſted by no other rats, nor by mice. As other inſtances of the like kind have been known, particularly on ſhip board, there is no doubt but from this circumſtance, a new method might be put in practice for getting rid of theſe troubleſome and highly miſchievous vermin.

It is ſaid that no ſuperior poſts in the army will, for the future, be diſpoſed of, or exchanged, without the conſent and approbation of his Majeſty

Great Britain feels at this hour the fatal effects of her ill judged conduct towards the Americans. The balance of trade to America was ſo great before the diviſion happened as to fill this country with gold and ſilver, particularly the latter, the want of which is now ſo grievouſly felt by every man in trade from one end of this kingdom to the other. The diviſion between the Mother country and her colonies gave the firſt riſe to the extenſion of paper credit, the evil conſequence of which is now manifeſted.

Sept. 1. Yeſterday a commiſſion paſſed the great ſeal, appointing the Lord Chancellor, and the other Miniſters of ſtate, together with William, Earl of Dartmouth, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, Lord Robert Spencer, George Greville, Bamber Gaſcoyne, William Jolliffe, Eſquires, and Lord Garlies, to be commiſſioners for promoting the trade of Great Britain, and inſpecting and improving the plantations in America, and elſewhere, with a revocation of the laſt commiſſion.

Alſo paſſed the great ſeal a reverſionary grant of the office of ſecretary of his Majeſty's province of New York, to William Knox, Eſquire, during his life, on the death, or any ſooner determination of the intereſt therein, of George Clark, Eſquire, the preſent ſecretary.

Alſo paſſed the ſeal a proclamation promiſing a reward of 500l. for the diſcovering and apprehending any of the perſons concerned in burning the Gaſpee ſchooner in Providence river, on the 10th of June laſt; alſo a reward of 500l. and his Majeſty's pardon, to any of the offenders, for apprehending each of the ringleaders.

The French and Corſicans are now at perpetual war, which is carried on by military executions on one ſide, and murder and aſſaſſinations on the other. So averſe are the Corſicans to a French government, that, it is ſaid, they really poiſon the wells, ciſterns, and fountains, in that part of the country which the French inhabit.

Sept. 2. Orders are come from the court of Denmark to their agent here to pay to this court 60,000l. which is the fortune given to Queen Carolina Matilda, and which the court of Denmark have thought proper to return; alſo 20,000l. more in conſideration of the preſents made to the Queen on her marriage with the King of Denmark. And, we hear, that the above ſums of money are to be appropriated for the future maintenance and ſupport of the Queen of Denmark.

Sept. 3. We hear that it is in contemplation with a little truly patriotic committee to build, in convenient parts of the town, ovens for baking the bread made of American flour, with ſhops adjoining, where the poor may purchaſe it on eaſy terms.

It is generally believed that a revolution is inevitable at a certain northern court, as alſo that ſome powers are concerned in it, who affect, at preſent, to be mere ſpectators.

It is reported that the French have lately given very large orders for powder and ball in the ports of Holland, to be delivered into his Chriſtian Majeſty's dockyards before Chriſtmas next.

Accurate plans are taking of all our forts, ſea coaſts, and ſettlements, in Africa, and on the coaſt of Guiney.

By letters from Cadiz we learn that the Juno frigate of war was lately arrived in that port from La Vera Cruz, but laſt from the Havannah, with a million and a half of piaſtres in ſpecie, on account of his Catholic Majeſty; aboard this ſhip the Archbiſhop of Mexico took his paſſage, being appointed Archbiſhop of Toledo, the richeſt eccleſiaſtical preferment in Europe, except the Popedom.

They write from Lerwick, in Shetland, that the fiſhery this ſeaſon has been beyond the moſt ſanguine expectations, the Dutch having cleared, by the article of white herrings only, above ten millions ſterling; ſo that, allowing one-twentieth part to the revenue, the government has gained 500,000l.

Letters from Corſica inform that the duties laid on all Engliſh goods imported into that iſland are ſo high that they almoſt amount to a prohibition.

The Fox, Capt. Norman, from Caſco Bay, with maſts for the dockyard, is ſafe arrived at Plymouth, after a very fine paſſage.

A letter from Hambourg, dated Auguſt 25, ſays, "The day before yeſterday two couriers, diſpatched from Stockholm, paſſed through this city; ſince which it is no longer a ſecret here, that the four great cities of Sweden, viz. Chriſtianſtadt, Joenkjoeping, Landſcrona, and Gottenburgh, have declared the King of Sweden their abſolute Sovereign. On the 13th of this month Prince Charles put himſelf at the head of the troops and the militia of Landſcrona, and Prince Frederick Adolphus did the ſame at Gottenburgh. Theſe two Princes joined together, and marched with their army conſiſting of 16,000 men, and encamped before the walls of Stockholm, declaring the King to be abſolute at every place in their march. On their arrival before Stockholm, they demanded their princely rights, which had been limited and oppoſed by the deputies of the ſtates, and inſiſted that they ſhould revoke the late act called, "The aſſurance of the King." The private letters from thence ſince that date, ſay, that his Majeſty kept himſelf cloſe at Stockholm till the army came before the walls, and then communicated his deſign to the ſtates; that a reſiſtance was made by a great part of the Clergy and ſome of the nobles, but that they found themſelves obliged to diſcharge the King from his oath, and to declare him an abſolute Sovereign. The other two ſtates of the burghers and peaſants made not the leaſt reſiſtance.

A letter from the confines of Poland ſays, "The diſtreſſes of this unhappy country ſeem to encreaſe daily. Within the diſtance of fourteen leagues there are no leſs than eight different armies; and the united horror of fire, ſword, peſtilence and famine, combine to make it the moſt wretched ſpot on the inhabitable globe."

Lord Clive, it is ſaid, has declared an intention of adding one more public charity to the many in this kingdom, viz. a houſe of accommodation and reception for the blind of both ſexes. An extenſive act of benevolence, let what may be the motives.

Lord Dartmouth is the firſt of the Rockingham party that has accepted of a place with the preſent Miniſtry, and, it is ſaid, was with the concurrence of his friends.

A Scotch officer on half pay, it is ſaid, is a claimant for the title and eſtate of Lord Lenox in Scotland, which has lain ſome time dormant. The eſtate, which is 12,000l. per annum, is inveſted in the Crown, and the claimant is ſupported by two noble families, till he can make good his title.

It is ſaid that every cauſe of diſagreement between the Earl of Chatham and Lord Camden is entirely laid aſide, and a very ſtrict friendſhip now ſubſiſts between thoſe noblemen.

The ſhip Little Pompey, Capt. George Thomſon, from St. Chriſtophers to London, is taken by a pirate ſhip off the Madeiras, and carried into a Spaniſh port.

The Spaniards are very aſſiduous with reſpect to their naval armaments; and it is hoped England will, for once, copy their example.

An addreſs is, we hear, preparing by a very reſpectable body of North American merchants to the Earl of Hillſborough, to thank him for the very polite reception which they conſtantly received at his board during the time he preſided, and to acknowledge their high idea of his intentions for the mutual benefit, no leſs of the colonies than of the Mother country.

An eminent merchant of this city is under proſecution for taking 25l. per cent. intereſt on money, which he had advanced on bottomry bonds. This term denotes a bond given for the repayment of a ſum of money, on condition that the ſhip, on which the money was lent, returns in ſafety; but if ſhe ſhould be loſt, the bond then becomes void. The intereſt always given on theſe occaſions is 25 per cent.

Letters from Margate aſſure us that the effects of the late bankruptcies have been ſeverely felt at that place of entertainment; the company has been very thin all the ſummer, and the ſubſcribers to the rooms do not now amount to more than 400.

Laſt Wedneſday died, at his houſe at Marden, in Kent, JOHN OSBORNE, Eſquire, of Smallbridge: Perhaps there was not a more corpulent man in England ſince the time of Edward Bright, the Chelmſford butcher, who died in 1750, aged 37.

No leſs than eight commiſſions of bankruptcy paſſed the great ſeal yeſterday. One of them is againſt a perſon who is ſaid to have ſtopped for near 300,000l.

St. James's, Sept. 1. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto George James Williams and Francis North, Eſquires, the office of Receiver General of all his Majeſty's revenues within his colony and dominion of Virginia.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 5.

A letter from London, of the 5th of September, ſays, "The confuſion occaſioned by the late bankruptcies is not yet ſubſided, and there appears to be a general diſtruſt among the trading part of the nation."

THE aſſignees legally choſen on a commiſſion of bankruptcy againſt Meſſ. Robert and Robert Bogle and Scott, of London, merchants, having, by a power of attorney, appointed Robert Gilchriſt, James Robb, and William Bogle, jointly and ſeverally their attornies here, we give notice to all perſons indebted to thoſe Gentlemen that one or both of us will attend in Williamſburg during the time the merchants are doing buſineſs this court, in order to receive ſuch debts. We hope, when Meſſ. Bogles and Scott's preſent circumſtances are conſidered, that we ſhall be excuſed for doing immediate diligence on ſuch who fail paying off their balances at this court. Note, Meſſ. Edward and Rene Payne have joined the aſſignees in the power of attorney to us, and at the ſame time have revoked their power formerly ſent the Honourable John Tayloe, Eſquire, and Mr. Archibald Ritchie.

FREDERICK ZIMMERMAN.

ABOUT the beginning of laſt month one Lewis brought a waggon load of goods from Peterſburg to this place, in a waggon belonging to one Dennis, of Peterſburg: After delivering the goods, he carried his waggon to a blackſmith's ſhop, and turned out the horſes; there was a man along with him, who called himſelf Adams, and ſaid he was a blackſmith looking for work. The night after they delivered the goods they both diſappeared, and next morning two of my horſes were miſſing; the horſes were raiſed in this neighbourhood, and would not run away. Lewis left the waggon and team at the ſmith's ſhop, and every thing belonging to them, except two ſaddles; and he and Adams have been ſince ſeen with three horſes in their poſſeſſion on the road that leads from Peterſburg to Carolina. From this I conclude that mine were ſtolen, and that they ſtole them. I will give TEN POUNDS to any perſon that will apprehend either or both of them with the horſes, and ſecure them ſo that the law may take its courſe, and FIVE POUNDS more for delivering the horſes to Mr. James Donald at Rocky Ridge, or to me at Bedford courthouſe.
